Handwritten text in Burmese script, sixth line on the right.

Handwritten text on a long, narrow strip of aged paper, likely a manuscript or a page from a book. The text is written in a cursive script, possibly from the 18th or 19th century. The paper is yellowed and shows signs of wear, including small holes and stains. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be underlined or written in a larger, bolder script. The overall appearance is that of an old, weathered document.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on a single line across the page, with some visible ink bleed-through from the reverse side. The script is dense and difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the age of the document. The text appears to be a continuous paragraph or a list of items, possibly related to a historical record or a personal account.
